FILMING SHEET - SEVEN SETS + 15 QUESTIONS

Read straight down. Item 1 in orange is the cold open. If he answers instantly, the item was too easy.

1. RANKING

Ranking money advice your parents gave you

Open on the house one. It's the advice almost everyone got, and his answer contradicts it.

1. Buy a house as soon as you can afford one
2. Get a good job with benefits
3. College is worth whatever it costs
4. Save 10% of every paycheck
5. Pay off your mortgage early
6. Never carry a credit card balance
7. Always buy used cars
8. Stay at one company and work your way up
9. Don't talk about money
10. Keep your savings in the bank where it's safe
11. Don't lend money to friends

2. RANKING

Ranking the best ways to spend a big commission

Taxes first. Nobody says it, commission people get destroyed by it, and it proves he's lived it.

1. Set aside the taxes before anything else
2. Buy the car
3. Pay off debt
4. Put it straight back into the business
5. Build the reserve so a dry spell doesn't scare you
6. Index funds
7. Buy a rental property
8. Take the trip
9. Upgrade where you live
10. Give some of it away
11. Do nothing with it for 30 days

3. RANKING

Ranking every way to get a raise

Lead with the outside offer. Half the audience thinks it's smart, half thinks it's career suicide.

1. Get an outside offer and use it
2. Just ask
3. Leave for a different company
4. Take the job nobody else wants
5. Make your boss look good
6. Wait for the annual review
7. Document your wins and present a case
8. Work more hours
9. Get a certification
10. Move to a bigger market
11. Threaten to quit
12. Move into a commission role

4. GREEN FLAG / RED FLAG

A startup you're thinking about joining

Open on the equity one. Every item can go either way, so don't answer any of them instantly.

1. Equity instead of 20% more salary
2. The founder has already failed twice
3. Twelve people and no HR
4. They've raised a lot of money
5. They've raised nothing and are profitable
6. Your title would be two levels above what you've earned
7. Everyone there is under 30

5. GREEN FLAG / RED FLAG

Their hiring process

The three-interview one first. Everyone has an opinion and most of them are wrong.

1. Three interviews for an entry-level job
2. They offer on the spot
3. They ask you to do paid sample work
4. You meet the owner in round one
5. Nobody can tell you why the last person left
6. Everyone you meet has been there under a year
7. They ghost you two weeks, then rush you

6. RANKING

Ranking famous Houston buildings as investments

Astrodome first. Everyone knows it, nobody knows what to do with it. Verify any sale prices before they go on screen.

1. The Astrodome
2. Williams Tower
3. JPMorgan Chase Tower
4. The Galleria
5. Pennzoil Place
6. Wells Fargo Plaza
7. Post Houston
8. The Ion
9. NRG Stadium
10. Heritage Plaza
11. The Esperson Buildings
12. Greenway Plaza

7. TRUTH OR MYTH

Truth or myth: business

Friends first. It's the one people argue hardest about, and he has a partner story either way.

1. You should never go into business with friends
2. Raise prices and you lose customers
3. The first year decides everything
4. You can't scale a service business
5. Hire slow, fire fast
6. Your first hire should be a salesperson
7. If you're the smartest person in the room, you're in the wrong room

8. QUESTIONS

15 questions he can answer cold

No prep, no numbers to look up. Put the question on screen instead of reading it, and shoot all fifteen in one sitting.

1. Who was your first hire, and where are they now?
2. What's the dumbest thing you've spent money on in the business?
3. What's the one thing you'd never outsource?
4. What do you do when a deal starts falling apart?
5. What's the last thing you said no to?
6. What do clients ask you most?
7. What were you sure about five years ago that you were wrong about?
8. How do you decide who gets your time?
9. What do you do when you don't know the answer in front of a client?
10. Would you ever hire family?
11. What's the first thing you look at when you pull up to a property?
12. What's the most useless thing you still pay for?
13. What's a book you actually give people?
14. What does your Sunday look like?
15. How do you open a conversation with someone you want to work with?